WAIVER OF LIABILITY

I understand that John McClellan and Elizabeth Martineau have allowed participants and supporters of the bike-a-thon fundraiser on Saturday, July 14, 2018 to leave from and arrive to their property located at 2 Crowell Farm Road in Concord, Massachusetts. I know that they will be allowing access to their residence and grounds to those who are participating in or providing support to these events. I agree that I or a designated and qualified caregiver will be assigned 1:1 to my child/ward with autism and will be solely responsible for maintaining that individual's safety and appropriate participation. I also understand that there is a pool inside the house that cannot be used due to mechanical problems and I agree to keep my child from accessing the pool area. I agree to abide by any decision of the event organizers relative to my ability or my child's ability to safely take part in this activity, including the right to deny or suspend my or our participation for any reason whatsoever. I assume all risk associated with taking part in this activity and gathering at this location (2 Crowell Farm Road, Concord, MA), both while inside the residence and outside on the grounds, those risks including, but not limited to injury, contact with other participants, the effect of the weather, insects, and any other medical events, all such risks being known and appreciated by me. Having read the waiver and knowing these facts and in consideration of your accepting my application, I, for myself, my heirs and anyone entitled to act on my behalf, waive and release John McClellan, Elizabeth Martineau, Nashoba Learning Group, Inc., the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the town of Concord and any and all other individuals or organizations assisting at the event, and all sponsors, their representatives and successors from all claims of liabilities of any kind arising out of my participation in this activity, even though that liability may arise out of negligence or carelessness on the part of the person named in this waiver. I grant permission to all of the foregoing to use any photographs, motion pictures, recordings, or any other recordings, or other record of the event for legitimate purposes.
